

APRAA Accreditation Plus Program

Benefits Fact Sheet

- Join and support the only national, industry quality standards, established by APRAA in 1997
- Gain valuable trade and community credibility by being APRAA Accredited
- Special insurance discounts (up to 15%) via the APRAA industry insurance scheme
- Privileged access to SWO stock via the Allianz on-line auction
- Increasing recognition by the Insurance industry and regulatory bodies of the Accreditation Program and independent audit
- Business Listing on the APRAA website
- Business Listing in the APRAA Accreditation Membership Brochure, mailed out to our industry customers
- Only one accreditation fee, incorporating the National Parts Code (NPC)
- Independent Audit Program for all levels (conducted and certified by the NPC)
- Business Listing on the National Parts Code website
- Utilise the Accreditation Program signage and NPC certification
- Utilise the Customer Response Cards as part of the program's quality push
- Maximise sales of recycled parts, leveraging on the APRAA Accreditation status
- Ongoing improvement flexibility and industry benchmarking opportunities
- Save money via introducing better quality systems to your business
- Other promotional opportunities as they arise and be agreed to by APRAA
- Support of the APRAA Accredited Program by state MTAs

Should you have any queries please visit the APRAA website or contact the APRAA National Secretariat.

APRAA National Secretariat,
Level 7, VACC House, 464 St.Kilda Road, Melbourne VIC 3004.
Ph: 03 9829 1280 or 03 9829 1281.
Fax 03 9867 1795 www.apraa.com